MIXED MEDIA

Curiouser & Curiouser: Theatre of Imagination

INSTRUCTOR: David Terrill, Professor in Illustration

Inspired by cabinets of curiosities, this assemblage-based workshop will explore mixed media to create unique Theatres of Imagination. Curious participants are encouraged to engage in playful exploration using diverse art materials; found 3-D objects, collaging ephemera material, drawings, and paintings. The work is assembled in the provided wooden box, acting as the theatre, showcasing the interdisciplinary work. Brief morning inspirational presentations get ideas flowing. Participants will choose their ideas and theme(s) to explore. Technique demos will find their way into the workshop as the ideas and themes emerge.
