General Information

Accessibility

Vanderslice Hall (Epperson Auditorium):

Wheelchair/scooter access into Vanderslice is through Café Nerman, the Kansas City Art Institute's coffee shop, which is located on the southeast side of the historic building. From there, guests will be able to ramp up into the lift, which is located next to the entrance of Epperson Auditorium.

Shuttle Service to Crossroads:

The shuttles kneel to allow for easy access on and off the buses and will stop on Warwick within a short distance to the front door of Vanderslice Hall.

Foundation Studios:

Located at the north entrance of the building; guests are asked to use the sidewalk north of the Ceramics Studios, adjacent to the Kemper Museum parking lot.

Parking On Campus:

Parking is available in any campus parking lot, or you may choose to park on the street in the local neighborhood.

Guests with wheelchair accessibility who need transportation or accessibility information should contact Dexter Earney at dearney@kcai.edu for further information.

Ask about a KCAI discount when making a reservation.
