Policy:

Students experiencing documented medical needs (extraordinary cases in which serious illness, injury have occurred) or special extenuating circumstances (significant personal situation) that render them unable to engage in academic work for the remainder of the semester may request a withdrawal due to hardship. This policy covers only emergency and unforeseen illnesses, injuries, and personal circumstances that had their onset during the current semester, not ongoing/pre-existing medical conditions and/or personal circumstances. Requests are accepted after the first week of classes (following the 100% tuition refund date) and no later than the end of the sixth week of classes (fall/spring semesters). Requests outside of the scope of the policy may be considered on a case-by-case basis and at the sole discretion of KCAI.

A student may request and be considered for a withdrawal due to hardship based on medical needs when extraordinary circumstances, such as a serious illness or injury prevent the student from continuing classes. This policy covers both physical and mental health crises.

A student may request and be considered for a withdrawal due to hardship based on special extenuating circumstances when extraordinary personal reasons, not related to the student's personal physical or mental health (Ex: care of a seriously ill child, parent or spouse), prevent the student from continuing in classes.

Active duty military students who are deployed for service may also request a withdrawal due to hardship. The active duty deployment must have occurred during the current semester and the request can be made after the first week of classes

(following the 100% tuition refund date) and no later than the last day of the respective semester.

Students who are pregnant or experiencing pregnancy-related conditions, including childbirth, may request a withdrawal due to hardship. The pregnancy or related condition must have occurred during the current semester and the request can be made after the first week of classes (following the 100% tuition refund date) and no later than the last day of the respective semester.

In each circumstance, students will be afforded the opportunity to receive a leave of absence from KCAI for a maximum of four semesters. Partial withdrawals will not be permitted. A student granted a withdrawal due to hardship must completely withdraw from the institution.

F-1 status international students must initiate with the Primary Designated School Official (PDSO) or Designated School Official (DSO) as designated by SEVIS, and will only be considered after initial approval from the PDSO/DSO.

A request for withdrawal due to hardship may only be approved once during a student's academic career at KCAI.

Requests for withdrawal due to hardship and supporting documents are retained by KCAI for up to five years.

The Vice President and Dean of Students, in consultation with the Executive Vice President for Administration/CFO and Vice President for Academic Affairs, will review all withdrawal due to hardship requests.

If the request is approved, the following will occur:

1. The student will be withdrawn from all classes that semester and a notation of W will be recorded on the student's transcript for each class. Partial withdrawals are not permitted for approved hardship requests.
2. The student will receive a tuition refund equal to the amount of tuition charged during the current semester only. Course/Studio fees and meal plans are non-refundable. Residence Hall charges will be prorated.
3. The student will be subject to repayment terms of any Title IV federal financial aid as mandated by the federal government. All institutional aid will be returned. The student may be eligible to retain their federal or state aid eligibility based on their last date of attendance or request the financial aid office return the funds.
